Light Up A Life

Prelude Music: Performed by Melissa Burris, piano

Words of Welcome: Kristen Yntema
President and CEO,
AuthoraCare Collective

Musical Selection: Sarabande from Cello Suite No. 2 in D Minor, BWV 1008
Composed by J.S. Bach (1685-1750)
Performed by Benjamin Crouch (Saxophone)

The Candle
of Remembrance: “Let There Be Light”
Risa Hanau, LCSW
Clinical & Community Educator,
AuthoraCare Collective

Let there be light. We light this candle in memory of those loved ones no longer with us, those lifelong companions not beside us today nor waiting for us at home. We remember the importance of their lives in ours, and we are keenly aware of their absence. May this light illuminate — even in a small way — a little of the darkness we feel.

Musical Selection: The Lone Wild Bird
Based on the tune PROSPECT
Arranged by Melissa Burris
Performed by Christopher Carter, handbells and handchimes, Melissa Burris, piano, and Jeremy Truhel, handbells

Special Reading: “My Beautiful Broken Shell”
Written by Carol H. Adams
Read by Dee Curry, LPN
Hospital Nurse Liaison, AuthoraCare Collective

Dawn has broken on a beautiful day here at the ocean.
I've come to refresh my weary spirit and to refuel my tired soul.

I'm so grateful for the peace and the calm of the seashore, where time stands still and un-rushed,
where I can see and feel the beauty all around me.

This is my first morning at the ocean, and as I walk to the beach, feeling the rich, warm sand beneath my feet, I decide to collect a few shells.

It is low tide and I watch, mesmerized, as the ocean rises slowly, curls and then spills its white-laced foam onto the shore.

I walk by a broken scallop shell and leave it to search for more perfect ones.

But then I stop ... go back ... and pick up the broken shell.
I realize that this shell is me with my broken heart.

This shell is people who are hurting ... people who have lost loved ones ...
people who are frightened or alone ... people with unfulfilled dreams.

This shell has had to fight so hard to keep from being totally crushed by the pounding of the surf ... just as I've had to do.

Yet this shell is still out on the beautiful sandy shore ... just as I am.

I am thankful that I haven't been completely crushed
by the heaviness of my heart ... by the pounding of the surf.

If our world were only filled with perfect shells,
we would miss some of life's most important lessons along the way.
We would never learn from adversity ... from pain ... from sorrow.

I am thankful for all that I have learned from my brokenness ...
for the courage it takes to live with my pain ...
and for the strength it takes to remain on the shore.

Broken shells teach us not to look at our imperfections ...
but to look at the beauty ... the great beauty ... of what is still left.

Musical Selection: Vocalise
Composed by Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873-1943)
Performed by Benjamin Crouch, saxophone,
and Melissa Burris, piano

Responsive Reading: “When We Remember Them”
Written by Rabbi Simcha Kling
Led by April Rhinehardt, DMin, MDiv, MA, BCC
Chaplain, AuthoraCare Collective

Responsive Reading

(Please read aloud the lines shown in bold)

At the rising of the sun and at its going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

During the holiday occasions and at the year’s end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Words of Reflection: The Rev. Dr. Jill Duffield
Senior Pastor
First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro

Musical Selection: My Love Remains With You
Composed by Melissa Burris
Performed by Elizabeth Crouch, soprano, and Melissa Burris, piano

Lighting of Candles: John Connor, ThM
Chaplain, AuthoraCare Collective

“Let There Be Light”

Let there be light! We light these candles in the hope that these small flames will bring yet more light into our hearts to replace the darkness, little by little. In the midst of our sorrow, we affirm our hopes ... sometimes faint, but persistent — that life is good, radiant with warmth, beauty and love. With the lighting of our single candle, we affirm life.

Interlude Music: Performed by Melissa Burris, piano

Closing Statements: Kristen Yntema
President & CEO, AuthoraCare Collective

Musical Selection: You’ll Never Walk Alone
Composed by Oscar Hammerstein II (1895-1960)
and Richard Rodgers (1902-1979)
Arranged by Douglas E Wagner (1952-)
Performed by the First Lutheran Handbell Choir
Directed by Melissa Burris

Benediction: April Rhinehardt, DMin, MDiv, MA, BCC
Chaplain, AuthoraCare Collective

We invite you to view our Hospice Trees of Remembrance
at these two locations:

The Kontoor Brands Building, 400 N. Elm Street, Greensboro
Hospice Home, 918 Chapel Hill Road, Burlington

Thank you for coming.

May love and friendship light your way this season
and throughout the year.

About the Performers

Melissa Burris, Piano

Melissa Burris holds a degree in music from UNC-Chapel Hill and has been the Worship and Traditional Music Coordinator and organist at First Lutheran Church since 2014. Additionally, she accompanied and directed the Triad Tapestry Children's Chorus from its inception in 1993 through its final performance in 2020. Melissa and her husband, Lee, have lived in Greensboro since 1990 and have two sons and a daughter.

Christopher Carter, Handbells & Handchimes

Christopher Carter is a lifelong member of First Lutheran Church who began playing handbells at the age of 9. By age 12, he had been invited to join the adult handbell choir and was the youngest member of any adult choir at the church. He enjoys both solo and group ringing and has composed many handbell arrangements. Christopher and his mom, Betty Carter, performed in the bell choir together for over 30 years and rang for many Light Up a Life services. Employed as a scoring manager for Measurements Incorporated, Christopher also enjoys cycling and reading. He dedicates his ringing today to the memory of his mom, who died in September of 2021, and he thanks the AuthoraCare staff who provided support and comfort in her final days.

Benjamin Crouch, Saxophone

Benjamin Crouch is an educator, saxophonist, and composer living in Stokesdale, NC. He earned his Doctorate and Master's degrees at UNC-G and has performed as a soloist and chamber musician throughout the United States. Benjamin serves on the faculty of Rockingham Community College and Rowan-Cabarrus Community College, where he teaches music appreciation and jazz history courses. He is also past faculty of Queens University of Charlotte, where he taught saxophone, clarinet, music theory lab, and jazz and rock history.

Elizabeth Crouch, Vocalist

Elizabeth Crouch is a pianist and teacher from Stokesdale, NC, who received her Bachelor of Music and Master of Arts in Teaching degrees from UNC Chapel Hill. She is currently the accompanist at Bethel UMC in Oak Ridge and enjoys spending time with her husband, Ben and her two (soon to be three) children.

The First Lutheran Handbell Choir

The First Lutheran Handbell Choir rings throughout the year, playing a wide variety of works as a full choir and also in smaller ensembles. Several of the members have played bells for decades, while others began ringing only recently. Anyone with an interest in joining the handbell choir is encouraged to contact Worship Coordinator, Melissa Burris (melissa@firstlutheran.com) or Choir and Handbell Director, Jeremy Truhel (jeremy@firstlutheran.com).
